Each seminar will feature different combinations of professional fly fishermen experts including local pros and tyers. Bios and schedules are on website: www.jackdennisflyfishing.com

Our seminars are built on experience

The concept of the seminar was first developed in 1986 by Jack Dennis when he formed the Traveling Fly Fishermen with Mike Lawson and Gary Lafontaine. The three of them traveled the world for 15 years giving programs until Gary's death from ALS in 2002. However, the spirit lives on in the Jack Dennis Fly Fishing Road Show. You'll have a chance to hear Gary as Jack presents a program of fly fishing tips and you experience Gary's last words to his fly fishing fans before his death. Jack's tip to not fly fish with dogs will be challenged on video by Gary and will leave you rolling in the aisles.

Our concept is simple! We bring you fly fishing fun, humor, and program to improving one's skills, and once in a while tell a good fishing tale. Come join us for a memorable weekend.

Saturday and Sunday programs are completely different allowing you a complete weekend of programs. However, you can purchase just one day if you desire. Times are from 9:00 a.m. to 6 p.m. each day with a lunch hour.

I promise you a great time... Jack Dennis

Saturday night dinner with Jack Dennis and friends

Premiere showing of Jack's Secret Wyoming film

Saturday evening there will be an optional part of the seminar where you can have dinner with Jack and his guests. Jack will present the premier of his new film Jack's Secret Wyoming. The dinner will be separate from the weekend seminar and will be open to any interested fly fishers and guests. This will be a small cozy event where you can spend time talking with our experts. Enjoy a relaxed night of fly fishing stories and good cheer. Inquire on costs.
